

[1] If incoming students' theory placement exam results do not place them in Music Theory I and Musicianship I, they will instead take MUSC 1000: Fundamentals of Musicianship before proceeding to Theory I and Musicianship I. This is a workable option, but will of necessity cause the student to need to take some summer courses in order to graduate within four years'/eight semesters' time.